

Ignatian Camino

Suitable for End-Of-Year / Senior class trips, athletic team tours, history classes, spanish language classes, religious classes, faculty and school community in general

From the Basque Country to Catalonia

Bilbao, Azpeitia, Laguardia, Logroño, Zaragoza, Montserrat, Manresa, Barcelona

This lifetime experience is an excellent tool for all participants, whether they are students, athletic coaches, faculty, or members of the school community in general, to review the life of St. Ignatius of Loyola by visiting and partially hiking the Camino Iñigo de Loyola took almost 500 years ago, changing his life and the world forever. This trip offers faculty the possibility to reinforce what is taught in class during the school year. The itinerary can be customised to each group's needs. Add cultural, athletic, religious and social service activities as you need to create the trip itinerary that best suits your group.
